

there is a reason we should re-elect
Jana Duty as our County Attorney.

Re-Elect Jana

DUTY

COUNTY ATTORNEY

"When I ran for County Attorney four years ago, I promised to be tough on crime and to safeguard your tax dollars. As my record clearly shows, that is exactly what I have done. I need your vote on Tuesday so that we can continue working together for a better Williamson County."

Jana Duty

County Attorney Jana Duty

is protecting our families and community

JANA DUTY HAS MADE THE SAFETY AND SECURITY OF OUR FAMILIES HER NUMBER ONE PRIORITY. Since 2004, she has doubled the amount of protective orders obtained for victims of family violence. She has also gone out and found the best and brightest attorneys and staff to represent Child Protective Services. The most vulnerable among us, especially abused and neglected children, need the best representation possible in order to get the justice they deserve. That is what Jana has provided to them, and she will continue to be a strong advocate for victims.

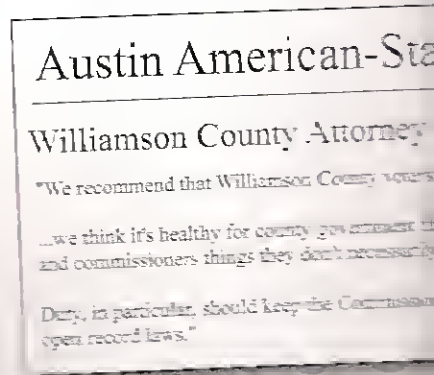

JANA DUTY HAS SAVED MILLIONS OF OUR TAX DOLLARS. When she ran for County Attorney in 2004, she promised to reform the office and create efficiencies with innovative ideas. The numbers don't lie. Jana has saved over $1,000,000 tax dollars alone simply by handling most civil litigation and contracts in the office rather than outsourcing them, and millions of dollars will be saved every single year now that the Direct File Process has been implemented. Additionally, by year's end, Jana's office will have collected almost $5,000,000 in hot checks and fees for Williamson County businesses.

JANA DUTY IS STILL THE CHOICE OF OUR COMMUNITY. She is a big part of why Williamson County is one of the safest places to live. She has received the endorsements of Sheriff John Bradley, the Williamson County Rock Police Officer's Association, the Austin Police Association, the Georgetown Law Enforcement Association, Bobby Gutierrez and Marty Ruble, and many others.

JANA DUTY HAS CONTINUED HER SERVICE TO THE STATE OF TEXAS. Her family's service to the state of Texas date back almost two centuries. Her ancestors fought in the Texas Revolution, and her family has fought in every conflict since. Her service is no less distinguished, first as a prosecutor in Bexar and Williamson County, and then as a respected County Attorney.

Texas date back almost two centuries to Joseph Duty, one of Stephen F.
Austin's "Old Three Hundred" who helped settle Texas. Four of Jana's ancestors fought in the Texas Revolution, and at least one member of her family has fought in every conflict in Texas history. Jana's record of Williamson County Attorney Jana Duty...endorsed for re-election

"We recommend that Williamson County voters stick with Duty, who is completing her first term...
...we think it's healthy for county government that its principal attorney is willing to tell the county judge and commissioners things they don't necessarily want to hear regarding the correct interpretation of the law.
Duty, in particular, should keep the Commissioners Court honest on obeying the state open meetings and open record laws."

Jaime Lynn has been...

- X Committing multiple criminal offenses.
- X Altering official government documents.
- X Ignoring an order from the D.P.S. and continuing to break the law.

Jaime Lynn has resorted to extreme measures to try and win an election. In a recent mailing, he ILLEGALLY used the badge and name of the Texas Rangers to imply an endorsement that he does not have. This is a CRIMINAL OFFENSE in Texas, and the D.P.S. sent him a "cease and desist" letter to stop him from further using their property for political gain. Lynn IGNORED THE D.P.S. and proceeded to send out a second mailing, again ILLEGALLY using the trademarked property of a state law enforcement agency.

Lynn's mailings are just a continuation of his pattern of reckless behavior and disregard for the law. On his website, he has even gone so far as to ALTER OFFICIAL GOVERNMENT DOCUMENTS in order to substantiate his false claims.

It looks like this is an attempt by Jaime Lynn to distract voters from his own record. The truth is that he is an inexperienced PERSONAL INJURY LAWYER who has never represented abused and neglected children. He has never worked in the juvenile justice system. He has never represented victims of family violence. And he has never prosecuted a single crime in his career. This is quite a record for someone who wants us to entrust him with the job of protecting our families.*
